NOTE FOR: Mr. Duckett

25X1 1. In trying to trace what happened to the now famous second letter from [] I find the chronological order of events to be as follows:

a. Package #50753 (containing the [] letter) was picked up by an NPIC courier late afternoon of 24 October. 25X1

b. Package delivered to the Compartmented Information Branch (CIB), O/S, the morning of 25 October.

25X1 c. Evidently the package was not opened until 26 October when the document receipt for the [] letter was signed.

25X1 d. The letter was then delivered to the [] Control Officer, O/S, on 26 October. 25X1

25X1 e. [] received the [] letter on 27 October; But, unfortunately, [] was on leave. [] noted the letter on Monday, initialed it to be returned to the BCO; but unfortunately, due to a misunderstanding, his secretary held on to the letter for further clarification of the routing. 25X1 25X1

2. It seems hard to believe, but the first [] letter also showed up for the first time this afternoon. I haven't traced the complicated route that this letter must have taken but will be glad to do so if you so desire. 25X1

3. Attached are the letters referred to above.
